Rental Association Information

- 60 of the 276 owners at Casa del Mar are members of the Rental Association.
- The On-Site Rental Association is a turnkey rental management option for the owner who wants to be able to enjoy their unit when their schedule allows, and not have any worries when they are away. The Rental Association pays for the maintenance of all interiors, furnishings, and appliances for units in the Rental Program. The funding for these ongoing maintenance expenses is derived from the Rental Association's Reserve fund. They also pay for your monthly electric and telephone services and handle all housekeeping and on-site front desk needs as well as hotel taxes, professional services and marketing for all rental units.
- The Rental Association has its annual meeting in January of each year and all rental members are notified of the meeting.
- The Rental Association of Casa del Mar was established in 1988 (as a non-profit corporation) and is managed by Resort Group, Inc.
- There is a $100 subscription fee required to join the Rental Association which is non-refundable and non-transferable.
- If you purchase a unit which is currently a member of the Rental Association, the unit will be considered to be up to "rental standards" and you will not have to upgrade your unit. If you purchase (or own) a unit not managed by the Rental Association (private unit), we will be happy to inspect the unit and determine what, if any, upgrades are needed to bring the unit up to rental standards. Standard rental units typically have newer carpet, sofa and chair, bedspreads and drapes, an upgraded kitchen and bath, as well as various other improvements. These items have been replaced/updated in all rental units as part of the on-going refurbishing projects of the Rental Association. The costs to upgrade a private unit to rental standards may be obtained by having a manager inventory the unit and give an estimate of the costs involved.
- The Rental Association maintains all unit interiors, furnishings and appliances. The funding for these ongoing maintenance expenses is derived from the Rental Association's Reserve fund. We also pay for your monthly electric and telephone services and handle all housekeeping and front desk needs as well as hotel taxes, professional services and marketing for all rental units.
- Each month, all of the revenue (rental income) is put into one "pot" and all of the expenses (maintenance, cleaning, office supplies, utilities, employee wages, etc.) are put into another "pot". The expenses are deducted from the revenues to arrive at the profit. The profit is divided equally among the owners in the Rental Association and checks are issued accordingly. Front units are paid at a higher percentage of the profits which is calculated on the rate differentiation between front and angle view units. You will receive a profit and loss statement each month from the Rental Association.
- The Rental Association is completely separate from the Homeowners Association and Homeowner Association dues are not deducted from Rental proceeds. Homeowner

- Association dues, property taxes, interior liability and content insurance are payable separately by each owner.
- The amount of your rental check will fluctuate from month to month. During the busy summer season, you can expect large check amounts and during the slower fall and winter seasons the check amounts will, in most cases, decrease considerably.
- The Rental Association maintains and oversees replacement of all appliances and equipment (including air conditioning systems) for all rental units which have been in the Rental Association for three or more years. There is no risk to owners in the rental program when their units are out of service as they remain in the “pool” for revenue distribution.
- The Rental Association has an extensive marketing and sales program to promote the hotel. We advertise in newspapers, trade magazines, on the internet and we participate in many special events, promotions, and package plans.
- You may use your unit upon request by simply calling our toll-free reservations line and making reservations. If your unit is occupied, we will assign another unit for your use. You should make reservations as far in advance as possible to ensure that we have your unit available. Owners are encouraged to use their units during non peak times whenever possible.
- Holidays, Special Events and summer weekends are peak occupancy times and owner use should be limited when possible, during these periods. Owners may occupy their units a maximum of 14 days March – Labor Day and a maximum of three months September - February. In the event you occupy your unit for a period of three or more consecutive weeks, the owner will be responsible for paying $15 for phone service, $50 (+tax) for check-out housekeeping service and the electricity bill for the period of time the unit was unavailable for rental.
- There is no charge for you to use your unit, however, you will not receive revenue for the days your unit is unavailable for rent due to owner usage. You will see a deduction in revenue for owner occupied days on your monthly statement based on the pro-rata earnings per day for the month. There is a charge for the maid service to clean your unit after you occupy it which is currently $25 (+tax) and that charge can be billed to your statement or paid upon check-out.
- If you wish to let a friend or relative use your unit free of charge, the above stated policy applies. Please note that we will only take reservations from actual owners, not their relatives or friends. You should always indicate whether the guest will be responsible for the maid service charges or if you wish to be billed for them.
- A copy of the Rental contract will further explain the details of the Rental Association.

Remodeling and Maintenance Overview Below

Rental Association Interior Remodeling & Maintenance Overview

The Interior Furnishing Remodeling

All rental unit interior furnishings are required to be up to Rental Association standards to participate in the rental program. If your unit is currently in the rental program, your interior is already maintained and there is no need to do anything further. If your unit is not currently in the rental program, we will inspect the unit and provide a list of items and associated costs that will be needed for the unit to become rental ready. We will handle the purchase and installation of all items and these items will be maintained by the Rental Association once they are installed, as long as the unit remains in the rental program.

Other Maintenance and Expenses

If your unit is already in the rental program, the major appliances and Air Conditioning systems are already being maintained by the Rental Association. For new units coming into the rental program, because we are not replacing the Air Conditioning system as part of the typical upgrade agreement, the maintenance and replacement costs associated with this system will remain your responsibility until your unit has been in the rental pool for 3 years. After that time, the Rental Association will take over maintenance responsibility of that system as well.

Buying & Selling

In the event the buyer wants to keep the unit in the rental program, there is no fee and they would simply need to sign rental contracts. Below is the information for removing a unit from the rental program.

A 30 day notice is required to remove a unit from the Rental Program. Owner use upon the 30 day notice is subject to approval based on potential sell out availability.

Our standard procedure is to change the locks on the unit to the private master system and provide the new owner with two keys for pick up at the front desk. (Only an owner is able to sign for the keys.) If additional keys are requested, please let us know and we will provide those at $5 extra per key. As a reminder, all locks at Casa del Mar are required to remain on the HOA master system so please contact our maintenance department for information on changing locks.

The new owner should arrange to have the power and telephone service changed into their name as of the date the unit is being removed from the rental program. We also remove all hotel telephones, amenities, paperwork, linens, pillows, bedspread sets, skirts, shams, scarf sets, towels and blankets, so the buyer should arrange to provide those for the unit as well.

Owners who do not participate in the Rental Program should instruct their guests to contact you directly for maintenance or guest service issues as the front desk no longer has access to your unit. Your guests should also be instructed to register their vehicles at the front office upon arrival and pay the HOA Parking Registration Fee of $40+ tax – only credit card payment is accepted – no cash.

Owners who rent their units are responsible for ensuring their guests are familiar with and abide by all of the HOA rules and regulations. Please refer to the rules and regulations for details on this.

If an owner wants to bring their unit back into the program at a later date, they will be required to pay for the most recent updates to FF&E (furniture, carpets, artwork, appliances etc.) in order to bring the unit back up to current rental standards.

A copy of the buyer's settlement statement should be presented when the new owner comes to pick up their keys and either a check for the outstanding loan amount or proof of payment on the settlement statement showing this amount was collected at closing will be required.

Owners who rent their units are required to register with the City and pay hotel taxes as required by City and State hotel tax laws. Information on State tax requirements can be found at: www.state.tx.us And information on City tax requirements can be found at: www.galvestonparkboard.org However, the Rental Association handles all hotel taxes and registrations for owners in the rental program.

If you have additional questions, please call Marilyn Cooper at (409) 572-1099.

History of the 2014 Capital Improvement Project Information Below

Illustration of the 2014 Capital Improvement Project

As an example of one of the many benefits of having the Rental Association manage and maintain your unit, below is an illustration of one of the capital improvement programs the Rental Association offered its owners.

In 2014, the Rental Association completed a substantial remodeling project in all rental units with the following upgrades: Completely new bathroom including new floor tile, granite counters, bathtub, sink, fixtures, mirror and paint. The kitchen remodel included new floor tile, granite countertops, new appliances, sink, fixtures and refurbished cabinets. Each unit was completely re-painted and new lighting fixtures were installed throughout in addition to the installation of a new front door. There was no cash outlay for owners in the Rental Program; the only requirement for participation in this improvement project was a commitment for each rental unit to remain in the rental program for 5 years. This Capital Improvement project was funded through a bank loan to the Rental Association in the amount of $8,500 per unit that each unit paid back through rental proceeds over the 5 year period. The bank loan that was paid off early in 2019 therefore there are no longer owner obligations toward the project. Prior to the loan being retired, had an owner sold their unit, the agreement was transferable to the buyer. In the event the unit left the rental program prior to the loan being paid off, the prorated share of the remainder of the loan amount for the unit was due. The amount due decreased by 20% each year the unit was in the rental program, for example, if the unit is removed from the program after 3 years, only 40% of the cost was due; after 4 years, only 20% was due, etc. As of 2019 all remodeling obligations were satisfied.

Again, this information is strictly provided as an example of how one of the Rental Association's capital improvement projects was funded with no cash outlay by the rental owners.
