

As of 1pm Tuesday, the property has power to only approximately half of the units and we are waiting for Centerpoint to continue their efforts to restore power property-wide.

We appreciate everyone's patience. Owners, please understand that you will need to check your individual unit status as we are unable to provide individual updates. The offices are open, and we are slowly resuming full operations.

The Management and Staff

Casa Del Mar